

Make every word hurt prose poetry, the lyric and creative culture

Symposium

Speakers include the writers/academics:

Prof Katharine Coles, University of Utah

Prof Paul Hetherington, University of Canberra

Prof Jen Webb, University of Canberra

Dr Paul Munden, NAWE and University of Canberra

Dr Julian Stannard, University of Winchester

Dr Tom Masters, Southampton Solent

Monica Carroll, University of Canberra

Shane Strange, University of Canberra

Owen Bullock, University of Canberra

You are invited to attend a symposium (with lunch) being hosted by the University of Winchester in collaboration with the International Poetry Studies Institute (IPSI) at the University of Canberra. There will be papers on Reflections of the art and practice of poetry, Prose poetry rebooted, The lyric in a non-lyrical age and open discussions on poetry, lyric and creativity

University of Winchester

Medecroft 6

16th June 2016 @ 9.30 am – 4 pm

Followed by a Pop-Up-Culture Café, poetry reading at the Willow Tree Pub, Winchester, 6pm

For further details contact, Professor Andrew Melrose, University of Winchester, andrew.melrose@winchester.ac.uk